

NEW SPRING GOODS!

On Monday next we shall have on sale almost a complete assortment of Spring Dress Goods, Silks, Wash Goods, Muslins &c. The display of Novelties in Wool, Silk and Cotton Dress Fabrics, includes the newest weaves, the most fashionable shades and latest designs, that are exclusive with us.

In Waistings, so popular, in White and the new Champagne colorings, the showing is extensive ranging from 20c to $1.25 per yard. We have been fortunate in our purchase of heavy Cotton Domestics and will be able to offer you many staple everyday cloths at about old prices. Ladies are requested to call on us at once and look these new things over.

V. G. LYFORD

Neighborhood News

Dawson.

Mrs. R. H. Chittenden and little daughter are down from Lincoln this week visiting friends.

Mrs. Arthur Poore of Humboldt is visiting her mother, Mrs. Leibhart, this week.

Thos Hennessey of Summerfield, Kansas was greeting friends hereabout during the week.

E. B. Judd and family came down from Pawnee City Sunday in their automobile and spent the day with LeeRoy Judd and family.

A new water tank is being erected on the right of way of the B. and M. just east of the depot at this place. The old tank west of town will be torn down and with its removal one of the earliest landmarks will disappear.

Mrs. M. L. Libbee is spending the week with relatives in Lincoln.

Joseph Heim was a passenger to Lincoln Monday afternoon.

The Sherry Comedians held down the boards at the opera house Friday night. The attendance was small, but the performance was pleasing to those present.

Mrs. Hoppis and son are visiting relatives at Burchard.

H. A. Tichen, who has been seriously ill with typhoid fever, is now slowly improving.

C. F. Heim and Prof. Johns placed new pianos in their homes last week.

Claude Whitney of this place and Mamie Birch of Barada were married at Falls City last Thursday by County Judge Wilhite. In the evening a reception was tendered them at the home of the groom's father at this place. The young people will farm the home place this year.

Theresa Brick of St. Joseph was the guest of the Misses Riley last Friday and Saturday.

Little Esther Stoltz is a victim of pneumonia this week but is slowly improving.

Bert Alvord and family are now located in rooms in the Commercial hotel.

A baby boy arrived at the home of John Lyons and wife last Saturday.

Minnie Murphy was down from Humboldt Sunday, the guest of Mrs. Will T. Fenton.

Paul Scanlan spent Sunday with friends in Sabetha.

The Misses Kelly and O'Neill were over from Shubert Sunday.

Mary Bourke of Auburn spent a few days of last week at the home of Henry Farrell at this place.

Emma Keller of Falls City was in town last week organizing a class in vocal and instrumental music. She secured eleven pupils.

Bess Graham entertained the members of the Candlelight club at her home Thursday evening; Margaret O'Grady winning the prize. Ice cream and cake were served and all present report a jolly time. Whist was the order of the evening.

R. E. Fenton was a Table Rock visitor the first of the week.

T. E. Regan of Deadwood, S. D., was in town last week visiting old time friends.

Humboldt.

Poultry raisers of this section have profited greatly the past few weeks on account of a war of prices between the local buyers.

Miss Emma Frank, of Quincy, Ill., is a guest of her sister, Mrs. A. A. Tanner and Bertha Frank in this city.

Mrs. Richards, residing in the north part of town left for Kansas City, Sunday in answer to a message announcing the serious illness of her nephew, Claud Moore formerly a resident of this city.

Samuel Wilson and daughter, Miss Grace of near Burchard were guests at the home of W. F. Wilson and wife last Sunday.

Ben Unland met with an unfortunate accident on Tuesday while in the timber cutting wood. He was at work chopping down a tree when his axe struck a dry twig and glanced with the result that he struck his foot.

The funeral of G. F. Marburg on Sunday afternoon was attended by an unusually large crowd. A special train from the west brought a large delegation from the I. O. O. F. and A. O. U. W. lodges of Pawnee City. He was very prominent in lodge work in this part of the state.

The republicans of this city organized a Roosevelt club on last Tuesday evening and elected the following officers: E. W. Neill, president; H. E. Boyd, vice president; O. L. Bantz, treasurer and E. F. Sharts for secretary. Committees were appointed to solicit new members in all the precincts included in the organization.

Special prices on cured meats and lard at Coupe & Thorntons'.